The suggestion of 20-25% increase in housing will impair the cohesion of the present community and put pressure on country roads and increase numbers at school. The present population makes for a settled population where most know neighbours making a good quality of life, with a good local store, pub, church and doctors surgery. 150 ^{more} houses would impair this.

Green belt will suffer, fields and country views will be lost.

We have had to accept the Warwick Parkway which could have been built closer to Warwick and still had good road connections. Reluctantly I would accept 12-20 houses.
