lubbington. Options 1) & 2).

I am totally opposed to any move to build houses on allotment land, as would any allotment holder. All round the country they are a much sought after means of recreation, and enjoyment, and should be looked after, along with football pitches, golf courses etc.

Option (2) could still be built on without interfering with allotments on option (1).

Relocating would probably cause more problems to suit everyone concerned, than there are now. Access from Coventry road to Kenilworth road will probably be eventually built on. So why not leave the allotments alone as a sort of green belt buffer zone, for the future.

yours sincerely in opposition.
