Placing all 75 dwellings on preferred site 1 seems excessive Further down Redhane is a static caravan site which, I am given to understand has recently been granted planning permission for a further 28 caravans. If these caravans were small bungalows suitable for senior citizens, first time buyers then this would reduce the need for 75 dwellings on preferred site 1

I support preferred option 1 providing the development does include the inclusion of a green for the village and the village hall - these would provide a real focus for Burton Green because of its proximity to the village school.

My concern with the access point to site ① is in relation to HS2 development issues. My understanding is that an HS2 construction site will be developed off Red Lane with access more or less opposite the proposed access point. Our concern is the disruption we are going to have to put up with whilst all these developments are taking place.
