The eastern edge of Kenilworth was developed when Knight's Meadow estate was built, which represented a huge change to the small town in terms of extra vehicles and population and no thought was given to the impact on the road system i.e. an alternative exit to the A46, avoiding St John's + Thickthorn roundabout. The proposed development would put huge pressure on the existing 'exit' routes - Glasshouse Lane + Birches Lane and the options suggested are inadequate to ameliorate the impact. Signals at Thickthorn roundabout will result in worse tailbacks on to the A46 + into Leamington Road.

I object to altering the green belt around the small town of Kerilworth. Your booklet itself states that the purpose of the green belt is to 'stop urban sprawl'. The green area around our town is important and needs to be preserved - the creation of a park, with facilities for local residents would be an alternative but not the development of houses + industry in an area of Kerilworth which is still struggling with the effects on transport road users from previous development.
