When considering planning applications for schools, local planning authorities must be bound by their obligations to the constituents who voted them in, and to have full and fair regard for the needs of new top quality schools for the families and young persons of these citizens.

By "top quality", I mean schools that produce consistently high results - in academic qualifications, and also in training students to be responsible citizens who are an asset to their community. A Christian Faith School does just that - look at results.

I write to you as a concerned Christian that there must be provision for 'Places of Worship' in PO17 because we are told by the Lord Jesus Himself that "Thou shalt do homage to the Lord thy God" St. Matthew Ch4 v10 ...and the explanatory note to 'homage' confirms that this means "Proskuneo - an act of personal reverence and homage" - This must mean there is provision for places where this can take place
